

- Have an idea for an existing project?: If you are currently working on a project that relates to youth with mental or behavioral health concerns, let the Center help you out. Apply and let us know what you are currently already doing, and ETUDES can pair you up with one of our investigators who works on a similar issue. With the help of our investigator, we could help you further develop and evaluate your existing project to ensure its success!
- Have an idea for a new project?: If you have an idea for helping youth with mental or behavioral health issues, but have not taken the steps needed to implement your idea or just don't know where to start, we can help! Just submit what you have in mind and the Center will pair you up with an investigator studying a similar topic. Together, we can formulate a plan to turn your idea into action!
- Is there a difficult problem you would like to solve?: Do you notice a general issue that is occurring with the patients that come in to the office, but aren't sure how to help? For instance, are patients having difficulty making it to appointments because of transportation issues? Present us with an idea that needs a solution, and we can work together to come up with a plan that works for everyone!
